Parade Success

The annual memorial day parade left Legion Hall, at one-thirty. Leading the procession were the color bearers and guards followed by the band in full regalia. A troop of Coast-Guardmen followed. Led by Arthur Wholly, Veterans of the World War marched with the Boy Scouts of Troop 71, which is the Chatham Troop. Four Sea-Scouts joined up the uniformed procession. Waving American flags the Children of Chatham School Elementary passed as a group. With the band blowing full blast, the Parade moved down proudly Main Street, touching Veterans Field, and then going to Sears Park. The different sections were drawn up in a half circle around the World War monument. Commander Wholly addressed the audience on the meaning of Memorial Day. The Chaplain then asked for divine blessing. Then the band played after this Mr. Wholly spoke. He asked that they should carry on the spirit on their fallen comrades. A salute for the dead was then fired. Two members of the band played Taps in unison, which was answered faintly from afar. Arriving at Sears Park, from Veterans Field, the procession drew up on Main Street, while the Legionnaires entered the Park. A wreath was placed by the Sargeant-at-arms upon the Civil War monument. Taps and salutes were given respectively. The parade then marched to the Legion Hall, their starting point where it dispersed. May 31

A group of women from Chatham recently requested Mr. Small of the State Education Department whether the Cape could have a vocational school. That is what is back of the survey whether Chatham graduates since 1933 would like a vocational school. The survey is being conducted by a state investigator. Though plans are indefinite until the survey is finished. If the school is erected it will be somewhere in the center of Cape Cod and will serve all of Cape Cod. Results of the survey have not been made public yet. See editorial page for comments.

Snow White Comes Here

June 12, 13, 14, Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs Walt Disney's record breaking money maker will be in Chatham on the 12, 13, 14, of June. Snow White showed for four weeks in Radio City Music Hall, longer than any picture which has been there. By Alice Gilbert.

The Monoroy Theatre will open July 2 for a ten week run here in Chatham at the Chatham Guild House. Mary Winslow is producer. It is a non-profit organization, and its producer hopes it will become a permanent summer and winter Theatre group.

New Chatham Plans

The Memorial Day Baseball game between Chatham and Hyannis began at three fifteen, three quarters of an hour late. The first three innings it looked as if the teams were evenly matched for neither team scored. Beginning in the fourth inning Hyannis got two outs on Chatham M. Deane No. 3, on the rally with a triple. Four runs were binned before Chatham went back into the field. Tony Slavin returned to pitch for Chatham. The final score was 9 to 0 in Chatham's favor.

Memorial Day

By A Friend

Memorial Day. It certainly is some day, more than the first summer day.

It is a day dedicated to the memory of the men who died to make us a nation free, for which we all ought to be grateful.

Memorial day is a day dedicated, at least in part, to those beloved contractors, who bring to mind Concord, Lexington, Yorktown, Santiago, San Juan Hill, Gettysburg, and Chateau Thierry, or where ever we fought with all giving purpose of preserving the freedom of America.

Decoration Day. That was the old New England name. One wonders how many wreaths placed upon Soldiers graves today were made in good old New England.

There was a time when Decoration Day was a town and family affair. There were so many wreaths made at home from flowers gathered by the children that the Governors boast was that no soldiers grave went undecorated on Decoration Day.

The G.A.R. was then a big factor in town affairs and the parade to the graves lingers in our memory. And after the Spanish War there were two new graves. Now Mrs Oliver Wendell Holmes in lyrical mood. "Make three wreaths," we for those who waited long and mourned him.

Mismanagement

The length of time which it has taken to set up a curbstone on Cedar St. is notorious. Last March the Editor was here. Con't at Ton.

Two months later and the only improvement is a curbstone which isn't finished. The Chatter does not mean to blow everything up and we don't think that is the purpose of the paper but the facts are that the WPA project has been mismanaged. What do you think of this. The Chatter is anxious to receive letters on this subject which we will gladly publish.

It Deserves

The move which has been made to establish a vocational School on Cape Cod deserves the support of every citizen in the town of Chatham. For several years now we have had a Cape Cod improvement plan. If we have a vocational School on Cape Cod it will train the coming generation in the trades and therefore carry out a new improvement plan for Cape Cod. Though the plan is still indefinite (see page 1) we are sure that this school will include in its curriculum things which will be useful to Cape Cod students. I repeat this plan deserves the support of every citizen of Chatham.

Chatham Naval Reserve

By
Samuel Freedman

The Chatham Unit of the United States Naval Communication Reserve has enlisted 19 men during the past year under the command of Ensign Samuel Freedman USNR. Although comprised mostly of Chatham men, this Unit has been meeting at the new Harwich High School regularly on Monday nights because of the more advantageous quarters available there. The Unit commander recently received a shipment of rifles and small arms and all hands are now being trained in the manual of arms. The Unit roster now comprises Radiomen, Seamen, Signalmen, Yeomen, and Apprentices, ratings. All hands will during the next few weeks receive a full uniform and to observe a service atmosphere at all meetings.

The final meeting at headquarters will be held Monday June 13th after which the men will of their own volition meet Monday evenings 7:30 pm on the Chatham Athletic Field for Infantry Drill, during the summer months. The men voted to continue meetings during the winter in order to brush up on rifle work the New Year. The editor would like to add certain

The Perfect Swim

I had made a vow.
And, always before I had kept every vow.
But this looked bad.
I had sworn I should go in swimming on May 31. In the morning I had touched the water that I was going to go in swimming (?) in the afternoon. It hadn't seemed quite so bad
even then. But now, wow! I thought it was so cold that a Pole, would freeze
his fingers off.

I saw a friend of mine slinging big black circular things with black "sticks"
sticking out of it.
I went up to him and asked him why he was throwing. He replied with considerable effect upon me, I answered, "Herseshoc Crabs! No swimming for me! I'll get bitten!" "They don't bite. The only time that they are annoying is when they are turned over,"
and suiting action to words he threw a few crabs in upside down.
"What happens if you step on one when its upside-down?", I asked fearfully. "Well, their insides turn out, that's all."
My own insides almost turned out at this thought. Mustering courage, I went out three feet.
Brr. It was cold. I stayed out in three feet of water for about five minutes.
My companion, who was dressed, and an oldtimer, looked on critically. "Look out, there's a crab behind you. Run for your life!" I quickly made a belly
flip and splashed away.

Memorial Day

In 1870 one of the generals who had fought in the Civil War got an idea. He said that on May 30, each year we should honor the dead who had died for our country, ever since then we have celebrated May 30, as Memorial Day. On this day, we give ti-bute nowadays to the dead of all our wars.

This year an aero-plane flew over the place where the battle of Gettysburg
was fought.
Two men were in the plane. One a 95 yr.
old man who had fought for General Lee in the battle of Gettysburg. The other a 93 yr. old man was from N.Y. and was fighting for General Meade.

The Monomoy Yacht Club has finished it's club house next to the boat building shop and has cleared a parking space for it's members exclusively across the road. The Stage Harbor Yacht
Club adopted in a special meeting a plan to erect a club house above Crowell's fish wharf. (The plan of it will be published in the next issue.) The boats are being painted up now and it looks as if in a week or so we will have a good sized fleet in Stage Harbor. Mr. Tio-ner is fitting out his yacht which he bought last September. The Stage Harbor Yacht Club will begin it's races on July 4th.

Police Radio Successful
By Samuel Freedman, Radio advisor, Barnstable City Pol. Rdo. System
The Barnstable County
Police Radio System
now operating under a special act of the Mass.
Legislature signed by Governor Hurley March 17th has in the space of two months already become the third most important police radio system in the commonwealth of Massachusetts.
It is only exceeded in importance by the City of Boston's 78 Radi-stations and the Mass.
State Police. It has already this year sav-the taxpayers of Cape Cod unestimatable
sums by its efficiency and ability to expedite police and fire business.

84 Law Enforcement Officiers on Cape Cod now hold Radio Telephone 3rd Class Licenses issued by the Federal communications commissions. 11 two way radio stations are now in operation on Cape Cod.
Not less than 4 more are contemplated this year. Its use by Fire Deparments may greatly increase this number.
Great credit should be given Sheriff Crocker of this County for his ability and efforts in establishing the system on a permanent and satisfactory basis.

With exception of Chatham and Provincetown every town on Cape Cod having an organized police department
adopted two way Radio at town meeting this year. It is believed these two towns will also follow suit as their police departments are placed at a great disadvantage as compared to other departments.

Mr. Samuel Freedman has been appointed ~~Radio Advisor~~ ~~Radio Advisor~~ for the Barnstable County Police Radio System.

THE CHATHAM CHATTER ANNOUNCES

For a long time THE CHATTER has been looking for a mascot. At last we have found one in "Peppy" the Gilbert dog. We officially announce Peppy's appointment as mascot of THE CHATHAM CHATTER. Peppy is a short-haired, medium-sized, brown dog. He also has a white stripe around his neck and and throat, and he has white legs, and a white, black, and brown tail. He has a BLACK NOSE! Anyone who wishes to inspect Peppy may call at THE CHATTER office.

Received Appropriation.

Chatham was one of the many Cape Cod towns which received an appropriation for Post Office buildings. Congress has provided $75,000 for Chatham, $70,000 for Buzzards Bay, $85,000 for Falmouth.

Noah's Ark

In Chatham today we seem to have two of everything. We have two electricians, three Barber Shops, enough gasoline stations for forty years, two Drug Stores, two Lunch Counters, a host of Grocery stores. Also two Ship Yards. In other words Chatham is not such a bad place after all.

When I had gotten a safe distance away, I turn to look back. To my great surprise there was no horse-shoe crab. I tryed to look suspiciously at my "friend." But by that time he was over the hills. If he had stayed near, he would have been wet despite the fact that he had clothes on, in a short while.

at Boston Navy Yard next May. The Unit Commander reports that the Chatham Unit now has more than enough Men to form a platoon of two squads and new applications for enlistment makes very probable the establishment of two platoons comprising of four squads, which means that the Chatham Unit will become one of the largest and most important in New England. The mission of this organization is to procure and train the necessary Officers and Men required to man the naval communication service in the event of a national emergency.

Luncheon (cont'd from page 1)

Jello and whipped cream. The entrance fee was thirty-five cents. Attending was the Band, the Guards, and other officials. Approximately 90 people attended.

The Cash boy Kidnapped

Last Saturday night, near Miami, Florida, the five year old Cash boy was kidnapped. A little while after the boy was kidnapped, his uncle called up and said he knew about the disappearance and he found a note that asked $10,000 ransom which was the exact amount of money that the boy's father, owner of a small chain of gas stations, had in the bank. On the back of the ransom note was a map showing where to go to pay the ransom money. On the first trip of Mr. Cash he was unsuccessful, but on the second time he had a few secretive words with the kidnappers. He reached home and told his wife that he would have a phone call before noon from the kidnappers telling where to pick up their son. Noon, and no phone call.

"Angry farmers said that they would go out and find the kidnappers. They could not find the boy or the kidnappers. All hope that the boy is alive. Now "G-men" are looking for the boy. Said J. Edgar Hoover, "The only reason that kidnapping is continuing is that the kidnappers are not captured. In 1935-'36 kidnapping was not done. In 1937 the Matson and Ross cases, the kidnappers were not found. And within the last half of 1938, now the
